of all curiosities on exhibition in the literary museum of UTAH. An exhibition that was introduced to the notice of the readers of that compendium of curiosities, the Mormon Political Telegraph, by its exceedingly funny and volatile editor, on the 20th inst.

We fully realize that of this man Friday's productions, and have been frequently amused with some wild and crazy tales which he had before running over the editorial field.

He has written a number of pamphlets and tracts, and is a true or so of polygamous prophets to recommend them. With all due deference to his ability and faith, we beg to disavow our faith in such a Savior, or accept a true position that which his statements involve. There is no positive evidence that Jesus sprung from a seventh wife, or that any prophet of God, has ever recommended polygamy. We deny understanding, and we do this with the greatest respect to him, that he is a good man, and a true friend to the young, and a sincere advocate of a pure or so of polygamous prophet to recommend them. 2000 New York Sept. 18.

The Tribune's Washington Special says, the hotels were crowded to-day with southern parties waiting for forgiveness, among the more demonstrative of whom are members of the late rebel Congress.

BOSTON, Sept. 18. The Advertiser has a special, dated at Columbia, S.C., Oct. 16, which states, that the Convention was passed without debate on the ordinance against secession; three delegates voted nay.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. The steamer Ariadne, brings Savannah-dates to the 14th. R. M. S. Hunter is released at Ft. Pustak on parole and is a passenger by the Ariadne on his way home.

Virginia papers contain no news by the end of the week, except a series of highway robbery.

The Herald's Brownsville correspondent says, an imperial wagon train, while en route from Monterey to Tumamocas was attacked some time ago, and driven back by the Republicans. The train contained $250,000 in specie.

Glen Sheridan's military display along the Rio Grande is making the Mexican officers very nervous, and by balls and other entertainments, they endeavor to conciliate the dreading northmen. Juarez and his cabinet are leaving Chihuahua, went to El Paso, but was thought that he would be followed by the imperialists and be obliged to take refuge on the American side of the Rio Grande.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says, Gen. Carby has issued an order requiring the Provost Marshals to furnish registers of voters with lists of those who after the enrollment for the draft left the State, and those who claimed exemption for the purpose of preventing their voting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. The World's Washington special says, Judge Russell of Texas, and other prominent citizens are here to urge the release of Jeff Davis.

Holmes Hole, Sept. 17.

The steamer Chronometer, bound from Callo, for New Haven, arrived to-day, and reports having yesterday run into the steamer "Friend of Millow Bridge," of Elizabethport, for Boston. The vessel sank in thirty minutes. The crew were all saved.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.

Many of the bolders of the Confederate cotton loan in London, avoided a recent meeting in London, evidently for fear of exposure.

The London journals, therefore, seem to be at loss to know who the happy speculators are.

The United States Consul at Constantinople, in a letter to the State Department, dated August 14th, says, it is estimated that the victims of cholera already number twenty thousand, the number of deaths in a single day having reached one thousand. It is said that probably two hundred thousand of the terror stricken inhabitants have left the city.

The iron clad Monancock, steamer Vanderbilt, and the screw steamer Tuscarora, will leave on the 1st of October for the Pacific. They are to be attached to the squadron of that coast. These vessels will be accompanied to their destination by Com. John Rodgers.

Official information is received here that the Brazilian government has accepted, as entirely satisfactory, the explanation and reparation of the United States Government for the unauthorized seizure of the Confederate privateer Florida, in a Brazilian port.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 17.

The officer of the guard placed over C. C. Clay's casemate, was withdrawn yesterday. It is believed Clay and Mitchel will soon have their privileges extended upon their parole.

THE INDIAN CAMPAIGN. — The news from Gen. Connor's Expedition on the Eastern Plains received at this City on Wednesday, filled every one with good cheer. There has been for some little time past, and from different sources hints and slurs thrown out, aimed to weaken the confidence of the public in the ability, and military qualifications of Gen. Connor and to injure his reputation generally. Even the imbecile Editor of the S. L. City Dead Sea Telegraph, has had the effrontery to style the campaign with the Indians a "tusky and pompous parade."

We have quietly listened to imputations springing from such sources and often perused them when commented upon in print, feeling within ourselves a sort of silent contempt, knowing at the same time, that such uncharitable and ungenerous imputations proceeded from weak minds, empty brains, but malicious hearts and that time would pronounce them unjust and untrue.

There were many things to be done, many arrangements to be effected, and inquisitive old lady, who came without invitation, hustled up to the bride and queried, "So, you're going to be married? Keep house, eh? Goin' to have a gile?"

The organization of undisciplined troops was quite dumb-founded by such a question, staggered through her bluster that she really could not say whether it would be a girl or boy. But we vote for boys, for, see here, — Mr. Senator Kate Chase Sprague, following the example of more common people, has a baby, a boy, about five weeks old. Mrs. George A. Foster, in law, provided well with $5000 for his wife and baby, and many other contributions were collected.

It is to be regretted that the author of this article, in his desire to be frank and honest, has not mentioned any known, or common name, and has done so, to satisfy us.

The whole tenor of the Telegraph article, as far as it relates to Mr. McLeod, is to throw upon him the responsibility of being an adventurer. — We would here advise this editorial to desist that the public, years ago, reproached him with the fact that he now, being against us, and that the "opposition" is not yet removed; but the country, more sympathetically, if less well authenticated to be done, is carefully filed for future reference.

undersigned, prompt and decided, we will do this. This is the opinion of a certain class of people in Oregon. Every true and upright Christian, who knows his duty, and who has a command, will be zealous and devoutly to be wished." A thorough soldier, a devoted patriot and unflinching loyalist, is not suited to the purpose of Brigham Young. This is about the sum and substance of the matter and where the shoe pinches.

Mormon Irreverence.

The following blasphemous extract is taken from an editorial in the Salt Lake City Telegraph of Sept. 10, 1859. The article is shamefully abusive of the Rev. Norman McLeod, a gentleman whose uprightness, piety, and charity toward those who differ with him in religious matters, he endeavored to win to a host of honest Mormons, and whose only fault, that he has gone to Nevada and California for pecuniary aid in the erection of a church building in Salt Lake City, in which to preach the word of His crucified:

"The Mormons can afford to see a great many of the ministerial class along.

They claim a Savior sprung from a seventh wife, and have a score or so of polygamous prophets to recommend them."

In the same article, he says, "The Editor of the Telegraph is an expensive institution already, and will be still more so when the law relating to it is enforced; he either prepare to supply costs to the probable demand, or sell the right to republish it to Amos Wadsworth or the persevering Bummers. The speculation is highly managed, could not be profitable.

Notwithstanding its comicality, however, there is a vein of the serious so adroitly interwoven with the humorously, that we should hardly do the author justice, if we failed to notice this feature of its composition also.

It appears that this peculiar document was composed in reply to a notice, by the "Carson Appeal," of the Rev. Mr. McLeod's passing through Carson City en route to California, and his expose of the intolerance manifested by Utonians to all differing with them in their religious belief.

The Editor of the Telegraph refers to the circumstances of a rock being thrown intentionally or unintentionally into the house where the Rev. Gentleman resided, and supposes this to be the origin of the trumped up story of one or more attempts upon his life," published in the "Appeal." He affects to believe that it was intentionally thrown, it was by some ignorant booby who violated the sense of the people."

Now no man of ordinary intelligence would ascribe such an act to any other than "an ignorant booby, a fanatic, or an agent of some vile power; for neither Mr. McLeod, nor Mr. Lee, who was in his company at the time, have ever, so far as we know, or can judge, rendered themselves objects of murderous revenge by personal wrongs done to any member of Brigham's community, though both have rendered themselves obnoxious to the church; the former, by his preaching other than the tenets of the Utah Hierarchy, and his present visit to the Pacific States to obtain donations to build a church; the latter, by his apostasy from the lecherous system here obtaining, for which act alone, though his character be unimpeachable and his morale irreproachable, he is liable at any moment to meet with a summary death.

At the time the outrage was perpetrated, the Reverend gentleman was sitting up in bed, and Mr. Lee a short distance from him, both opposite the open door. Two stones were thrown with such violence as to smash a door, leading to Mr. McLeod's study. One of these weighed about two pounds, and the other over four pounds. They were evidently designed to kill the gentleman, for the one weighing two pounds barely missed Mr. Lee's head, and the other Mr. McLeod's.

We are satisfied that the Telegraph might have spared his "if". But he seems to have a very short memory, for he says it has been "many times reiterated by the Mormon press and pulpit, against the ill usage or abuse of any one opposed to the 'flock of this people.'" We purpose at some future time to refresh his memory with a few facts from the pages of history, and would suggest to him that the fate of certain men who met to hold "council" in the days of yore, is not forgotten; that the house still stands on Theatre Street where the ladies were held, and from which a certain lady was impelled to make her escape, and to this day is known as the "Ladies' Council House." We invite one and all to come and see the

Local and National News

Be tired to soft music, when Of hours and peace there's sweet singing; But drowsed by the point, my poor, long.
When crime's dumb bells are round the ring.

Big holiday time with those of Israel faith.

ATLANTIC CITY—Merrily sailed coats is forming in New York.

The world, Family, was drawn to distraction now fears that she will have to walk back.

The world and Family were fragrant and fancy at "Brother" Gift's bazaar, next to the Salt Lake House.

The silver discoveries in Colorado have proved to be a bust. Silver bars are being made there now, not much less successfully than in Nevada.

REVENGE.—Col. George and Captain Dalton, from Fort Bridger and other military camps between there and the North Platte. All is quiet along the line at present, and is prepared to be kept so.

BENEFIT of the gentlemen actors, at the theatre Saturday night. Plays—"Earnest Maltavers" and the "Serious Family," with Mrs. Hayne in both, and Mr. Potter in the last as "Aminadab Sleek."

THEY say there are several dozen soldiers stationed at every station between Bridger and Big Blue, a stretch of a thousand miles, at Colling, Hellock, Julesburg, Laramie, Kearney and Denver, a military strength is in efficient order, at the last.

Mong pie bungies and fast stock flying along the Temple Street, these days, than ever before. The town is filling with fast men and fast w-ell everything almost. The world moves in Mormondom since Jackson and Chapin started their livery, we mean!

PARTIES from St. Louis, Leavenworth and Washington over the surface is "peace at any price" with the Indian, until other things are through with.
Whether these are with Mexico or Mor-mondom, or both or neither, is not for us to say.

THE PARTY TO-NIGHT.—The looks of things would indicate that members and friends of the W.M. Cavalry Association are bent on "keeping the ball moving" at their hall to-night. There will be a glorious gathering of W.M.C. and a grand good time.

VERY LIVELY.—The main street, from the Salt Lake House to the Overland Stage Line office, all yesterday morning, was a perfect throng of travellers and strangers coming in, going out, and passing along to the Post office, Telegraph office and elsewhere.

JOS. S. ROBERTSON, Esq., the efficient Agent of the Overland Stage Line here, is having his hands full, these days, "booking" passengers for the north and east, as well as politely taking their "tickets" at the rate of eight or ten a day each way. He is very popular here with both smart and gentle.

MR. MARTIN is shipping his four fine billiard tables from this place to Virginia, Montana. Too bad that Brigham's City Ordinances allow not much an amusement or resort for gentlemen in this town. It is carrying his "christianity" a little too far, to shut down on recreations of that kind in this otherwise unrestrained city.

W. M. NOWLAN, Esq., a heavy merchant and freighter of Montana and Colorado, came through here by yesterday's stage, en route to Montana. Also A. Hanauer, Esq., returning to Montana. Their trains of goods turned thither from Fort Bridger. Messrs. Braxler and Slavin have a large train of liquor making for Montana also. The boys up there won't suffer much from thirst this winter.

SALT SODA.—The Rogue River Repelle came to us yesterday with a leader headed "Sal Soda." Our "devil" saw it and remarked ironically, "I know her!" It turned out, though, to be about another kind of Sal Soda just discovered, in its "native state" at a place called Rag town, on the Carson somewhere.

Chemistry can tell you all about her, as well as we can and a good deal more so.

MOVEMENTS.—Gen. Curtis, Williamson and others have started north for Gen. Sully's seat of war, to see the Indians and coax 'em into "peace." Gen.
Dodge was at Laramie, at last accounts, en route to Powder River. Brig. Gen.
Wheaton is to make Fort Laramie his sub-district head-quarters, and Brig.
Gen. Upton is to make Denver his sub-district head-quarters, General Connor taking sole command of the new "District of Utah."

SCAMMIS IN DENVER is said to be tolerably good "and comes of everything awful high—more so, in many cases, than in this place." WILLIAMSON had a train of general merchandise pass through there the other day, for Salt Lake and APPALACHIA. MIN. BARTOLS, a Denver merchant, made 'em an offer and they sold it all out—for sixty-five thousand dollars, however. They do since last May yet in Colorado, and the barbershop list of arrival. It is customary to abbreviate the attendants of a musical WILLIAMSON.

A negro woman who was baptised a WILLIAMSON came forth from the water, shouting freed from slavery. Freed from sin, bliss and God. WILLIAMSON WILLIAMSON

PRENTISS advises the Atlantic Telegraph folks, if they have any difficulty in discovering the last "fault" in their cable, to employ the enemies of the administration, who are probably the greatest fault finders in the world.

THE MISSOURI DEMOCRAT learns that Bishop Hawks, of the Episcopal Church in that State, has advised the clergy of his diocese to take the constitutional oath, or if they cannot conscientiously do so, to withdraw from the ministry. In that

THE JAHAM QUAEROTAN

The New York Herald says it has received private information from England which awakens suspicion that the defects in the APPALACHIA were the result of rivalries and jealousies on the part of some firms who put in contracts for its manufacture. One of these firms several years ago employed a man to drive a nail through the cable between England and Holland, because they were disappointed in obtaining the contract. APPALACHIA APPALACHIA

THE CATHOLIC BISHOP OF PHILADELPHIA had authority from Rome to announce that the assertion made in certain newspapers to the effect that the following decision had been given by the Holy See to wit: "Fenians not esse inquietando." The Fenians are not to be disturbed, is utterly false, and he promulgates the fact lest it should be understood that anything has emanated from the Pope in favor of the fraternity.

An officer of General Grant's staff, who recently had an interview with the President, says that Jeff is furious in his denunciations of Hunter and Stephens, whom he accuses of deliberately betraying the southern cause into the hands of the Yankees. "Had those twinkies," said Jeff, "representing as they did the weak-kneed conservative sentiment in the APPALACHIA firm, the southern cause would have triumphed." Jeff appears to be perfectly indifferent to his fate, but still does not think the punishment for his crime will be visited upon him. He told the officer that he had less care upon his mind now, and felt more than he did when he was president of the confederacy.

MADELAINE, a play of average interest, was presented on the Ladies' Benefit occasional last Wednesday night. The audience was not as big as the benefit and the beneficiaries deserved, but the entertainment was enjoyable and gotten up in that carefree style of APPALACHIA, for which the management is noted, and which, in its way, is a powerful auxiliary to the Stage and drama too. Several lady and gentleman members of the Association engaged in this piece, and in the comedy succeeding, appeared to fine advantage and acquitted themselves most creditably. Comparisons might be inviolable. The able, artistic acting of Mrs. Hayne and Mr. Waldron, (who "kindly volunteered") confirmed the golden opinions already entertained of them.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.
Gold 143.

James Michaelson, of the firm of Baldwin & Co., liquor merchants, died suddenly this morning of inflammation of the bowels.

Hon. J. M. Ashley will address the people on national issues next Monday evening.

John L. Jones, of San Juan, member of Company M, First California Volunteers, was killed by Apaches near Croton Springs.

The contracts for the construction of the United States Pacific Telegraph line from this city to Reese River are all let, and the work will commence immediately. Three mills in Santa Cruz are now at work getting out poles for the section between this city and PIERCEVILLE, which are to be delivered within thirty days, and from PIERCEVILLE to Virginia, to be delivered within six weeks. Jas. Street will leave for PIERCEVILLE in two weeks to contract for poles each way from that place. James Gamble, who recently resigned his position as Superintendent of the California State Telegraph Company, has accepted the General Superintendency of the United States Pacific Telegraph Company.
